

Web Publishing with SAS Output

Duration: 2.0 days

CEUs: 1.2

AUDIENCE

Managers, analysts and programmers who need to learn the basics of creating web output with SAS.

BENEFITS

This course is designed to show individuals how to publish results of SAS information on the web in browser ready, static form. All aspects of taking information from applications, reports, views, data sets and images and publishing them on the web will be discussed.

PREREQUISITES

Previous exposure to creating and submitting SAS programs, accessing data sets and libraries, understanding PRINT and TABULATE procedures and the basics of a Web browser.

COURSE TOPICS

Browser basics

- What is HTML?
- Understanding HTML design
- Tag basics

How to install SAS macros

Using the HTML data set formatter macro

Using the HTML output formatter macro

Using the HTML tabulate formatter macro

Loading a browser to see HTML results

Creating graphical Web output

- Creating GIF and JPEG files
- Creating transparent and animated GIF files

Developing automated applications to create Web output

Creating HTML applications for Intranet and Internet publishing

Creating HTML applications for on-line help utilities

Software Used: Base SAS Software