

Business & Technology ConsultingSM
Education Solutions

JMP Software Introduction to Data Exploration

Course Length: 1 day CEUs 0.6

Format: Hands on Training

AUDIENCE

This course is an introduction to JMP Software. Attendees will be introduced to the Interface and learn how to navigate the software. Students will learn to basic data manipulation, understand graphical capabilities of the software and creation of reports.

PREREQUISITES

Understand the basics of a Windowing environment.

COURSE TOPICS

Introduction

- JMP features
- Accessing data and files
- Reading data sources
- Overview of modeling types
- Panels (Table, Columns and Rows)
- Journal creation

Data Manipulation

- Menus (Columns and Rows)
- Creating new columns and tables
- Summary table creation using Tabulate

Graphing

- Continuous Columns Relationships
- Graph Builder
- Mapping
- Categorical data column relationships
- Recursive partitioning

Reporting and Presentation

- Journal Modification
- Journal Presentation
- Presenting Results